LAW LIBRARY OF THE SUPREME COURT.

SUGGESTIONS.

The Law Library is primarily for the use of the Supreme Court and attorneys practicing before the Court.

Do not re-shelve books.

As a library of reference, it is open to all, and the Librarian or his assistants will cheerfully give any aid desired, consistent with the discharge of their other duties.

Reasonable care should be exercised in the use of books. Folding down leaves or placing open volumes one on top of the other so as to injure contents or binding, does not come within the meaning of the term reasonable care.

The use of ink in copying from the books will not be permitted.

Marking books either with pen or pencil is prohibited.

CIGARETTE SMOKING WILL NOT BE TOLERATED.

Conversation is incompatible with study; continued whispering is especially annoying. ANY conduct or habit which may reasonably be apprehended to offend or disturb another ought not to be indulged, in a public library. A person causes very great annoyance to others by forgetting these facts.

No one will be permitted to use the library except as a reference library; it must not be used as an office or a study. The reading of text books or the use of the library for the continued examination of the Ohio or Ohio State Reports exclusively, is not consistent with use as a reference library.

To the Honorable Judges of the Supreme Court of Ohio:

The Law Library of the Supreme Court contains twenty thousand volumes, forming a collection of law books that can well be rated among the best Law Libraries in this country.

The following pages catalogue alphabetically and under classified heads and subdivisions, all the volumes contained in the library at this date, and it is hoped the same will be useful to your honorable body as well as to the legal profession throughout the State.

Very respectfully,

FRANK N. BEEBE,

Marshal and Librarian.

THE SUPREME COURT OF OHIO.

Under the constitution of 1802 the Supreme Court of Ohio was to consist of not less than three judges, this number to be increased to four at the discretion of the legislature. The constitution authorized the Governor to fill vacancies which might occur by death or otherwise, during the recess of the general assembly.

Three judges were chosen by a joint ballot of both houses of the general assembly, to hold office for the term of seven years, or "so long (within said period) as they well behaved." There were three judges until 1807, when a fourth was chosen by the joint legislature. The fourth judge was omitted in 1810, and a few years later the number four was resumed again and so continued until 1851.

Under the constitution of 1851, "The Supreme Court shall, until otherwise provided by law, consist of five judges a majority of whom competent to sit, shall be necessary to form a quorum." "The judges of the Supreme Court shall be elected by the electors of the state at large, for such term, not less than five years, as the general assembly may prescribe."

On April 15, 1892 (89 O. L., 317), the legislature provided for an additional judge, thus constituting a Supreme Bench of six judges for a term of six years each.

RELATING TO CHIEF JUSTICE.

"The judge of the Supreme Court having the shortest time to serve, not holding his office by appointment or election to fill a vacancy, shall be the chief justice, and as such shall preside at all terms of the Supreme Court; and in case of his absence, the judge having in like manner the next shortest time to serve, shall preside in his stead."

Under the provision of the statute dividing the court into two divisions, "the two judges of the Supreme Court having the shortest time to serve, not holding their office by appointment or election to fill a vacancy, shall be the chief justices of their respective divisions."

TERM OF THE SUPREME COURT.

The term of the Supreme Court in its early history was governed by Article III, Section 10, of the constitution of 1802, which provided that "the Supreme court shall be held once a year, in each county." On March 11, 1853, an act was passed providing "that it shall be the duty of the judges of the Supreme Court of the State of Ohio, to meet annually hereafter in the city of Columbus on the first Monday of December, to hold a term of the Supreme Court." This enactment also provided for holding "special sessions at such times and places, etc."

Subsequent legislation at different times, "fixing the time for holding courts in Ohio" assigned the Supreme Court to the different counties, naming dates.

An act was passed April 7, 1854 (52 O. L., 32), providing "That the Supreme Court, in addition to the terms now provided by law to be held, may hold special or adjourned terms at such times and places as the judges or a majority of them may from time to time determine."

Section 410 of the Revised Statutes, 1880, provides that "The judges of the Supreme Court shall meet annually, on Tuesday after the first Monday in January, in the City of Columbus, to hold a term of the Court." Provision is also made for holding special terms.

REPORTS.

There was no provision made for reporting the decisions of the Supreme Court until 1823 (21 Ohio Laws, 9).

TERRITORIAL JUDGES.

JAMES M. VARNUM, SAMUEL H. PARSONS and JOHN ARMSTRONG, were the first appointed under the Ordinance of 1787. JOHN ARMSTRONG did not accept, and JOHN CLEVE SYMMES was appointed in his stead.

BRITISH LAW TERMS.

By the Act 1 William IV., cap. 70, it is provided that, in A. D. 1831 and afterward —

HILARY TERM shall begin on the 11th, and end on the 31st of January.

EASTER TERM shall begin on the 15th of April, and end on the 8th of May.

TRINITY TERM shall begin on the 22d of May, and end on the 12th of June.

MICHAELMAS TERM shall begin on the 2d, and end on the 25th of November.

By the Act 1 and 2 William IV., cap 3 it was further provided, "That in case the Day of the Month on which any Term according to the Act aforesaid is to end shall fall to be on a Sunday, then the Monday next after such Day shall be deemed and taken to be the last Day of the Term; and, that in case any of the Days between the Thursday before and the Wednesday next after Easter shall fall within Easter Term, then such Days shall be deemed and taken to be a part of such Term, although there shall be no sittings in Bank on any of such intervening Days."

The Long Vacation extends from the 10th of August to the 24th of October.

The first Law Term is called, from St. Hilary, "Hilary Term," because it used to commence on his festival (January 13). The Law Terms were originally regulated by the Canonical Constitution of the Church, which, by exempting certain seasons, namely, Christmas, Easter, Pentecost, and the harvest season, from forensic litigation, divided the year into four periods, or terms, called from the festivals immediately preceding their commencement, Hilary, Easter, Trinity, and Michaelmas terms.

In Scotland, the Law Terms are differently arranged. The Court of Session sits from 12th of November to 20th March, and from 12th May to 20th July. But there, as in England and Ireland, the Judges are employed in other business during the intervals.

1751. ANNUS CONFUSIONIS. Until 1752 the English reckoned their year according to the Julian Calendar, the new year beginning on March 25. Parliament in changing to the Gregorian Calendar, the new year to begin Jan. 1, 1752, gave only 282 days to the year 1751.

1752. To change from old style to new, 1752 began Jan. 1, and in that year ten nominal days were dropped. The day following Oct. 4, 1752, was made Oct. 15, 1752.

NON LEAP YEARS. Even centuries not divisible by 400 without a remainder are not leap years; by 400 even centuries are, but A. D. 2000 will be a leap year. There are not $365\frac{1}{4}$ sidereal days in a sidereal year, the Gregorian error being less than one day in 3000 years.

28TH AND 29TH of February are legally but one day, the 28th.

0 Year. There is no year 0 in our reckoning. The year before A. D. 1 is B. C. 1.

46 B. C. When the Julian Calendar was adopted was the B. C. "year of confusion," containing 445 days.

The foregoing table of the "Coronation of the Kings and Queens of England" and the information under the head of and following "Annus Confusionis" was kindly furnished for this volume by Judge Alfred Yaple, of Cincinnati.

FIFTH DIVISION.

ABBREVIATIONS.

LAW BOOK ABBREVIATIONS.

The following pages present a table in alphabetical arrangement, of all available abbreviations used in referring to legal publications.

The growth in the publication of law books in the last few years has been so great, and the varied tastes in manner of abbreviating so many, that much is necessarily printed which would not pass the blue pencil of an expert. It is a fact, that the abbreviations exist, and are used, and as a rule are not generally understood.

 Inst. 1, 2, 31.....Justinian's Institutes, lib. 1, tit. 2, sec. 31.

The Institutes of Justinian are divided into four books,—each book is divided into titles, and each title into paragraphs, of which the first, described by the letters pr., or princip., is not numbered. The old method of citing the Institutes was to give the commencing words of the paragraph and of the title; e. g., § si adversus, Inst. de Nuptiis. Sometimes the number of the paragraph was introduced, e. g., § 12, Si adversus, Inst. de Nuptiis. The modern way is to give the number of the book, title, and paragraph, Inst. I. 10, 12; i. e., Inst., Lib. I. tit. 10, § 12.
